17th July 2001

Don,

The DURC 50m Open is to be held this Sunday (July 22) in the Fassaroe Sporting Club range in Enniskerry.

First prize in the Championship is a voucher for a Shilen barrel blank in the winner's choice of calibre and twist.

There will be the usual English Match in the morning (this is a Registered event), followed by a barbecue and then a 50m Rapid-Fire event. This will be ten shots in ninty seconds, five shots per target. This is an annual competition at 25yards for DURC, and usually yields interesting results, the winner often being a surprise.

First detail kicks off at 0930, last entries are at 1230 and the final detail ends at 1400. Allowing a short break for the BBQ lunch, the 50m Rapid-Fire competition begins at 1500, and should be finished by 1600. Prize-giving will take place after this on the range.

Entry Fees are £15 per entrant, which covers the English Match, NTSA levy, Rapid-Fire competition and the BBQ.

DURC club rifles (all Anschutz 18-series and 19-series rifles with decent barrels) will be available for use if necessary – please contact me for further details on this.

Hoping to see you there...

17th July 2001

Alan,

The DURC 50m Open is to be held this Sunday (July 22) in the Fassaroe Sporting Club range in Enniskerry.

First prize in the Championship is a voucher for a Shilen barrel blank in the winner's choice of calibre and twist.

There will be the usual English Match in the morning (this is a Registered event), followed by a barbecue and then a 50m Rapid-Fire event. This will be ten shots in ninty seconds, five shots per target. This is an annual competition at 25yards for DURC, and usually yields interesting results, the winner often being a surprise.

First detail kicks off at 0930, last entries are at 1230 and the final detail ends at 1400. Allowing a short break for the BBQ lunch, the 50m Rapid-Fire competition begins at 1500, and should be finished by 1600. Prize-giving will take place after this on the range.

Entry Fees are £15 per entrant, which covers the English Match, NTSA levy, Rapid-Fire competition and the BBQ.

DURC club rifles (all Anschutz 18-series and 19-series rifles with decent barrels) will be available for use if necessary – please contact me for further details on this.

Hoping to see you there...

There will be the usual English Match in the morning (this is a Registered event), followed by a barbecue and then a 50m Rapid-Fire event. This will be ten shots in ninty seconds, five shots per target. This is an annual competition at 25yards for DURC, and usually yields interesting results, the winner often being a surprise.

First detail kicks off at 0930, last entries are at 1230 and the final detail ends at 1400. Allowing a short break for the BBQ lunch, the 50m Rapid-Fire competition begins at 1500, and should be finished by 1600. Prize-giving will take place after this on the range.

Entry Fees are £15 per entrant, which covers the English Match, NTSA levy, Rapid-Fire competition and the BBQ.

DURC club rifles (all Anschutz 18-series and 19-series rifles with decent barrels) will be available for use if necessary – please contact me for further details on this.
